HISTORY

Once, ah, once, within these walls, One whom memory oft recalls.

-Longfellow.

West End High School, our school, has many wondrous memories. Most of these have been lost as history abides by her habit of skimming over life. The glimpses of the past are often obscure, and even when a part of the past is bright, the details seem unimportant and the charm they once held are lost through the years. More is known of West's beginning than of the years that brought West to the present.

The beautiful $500,000 West End High School building was erected during the summer of 1937, with an eye to providing spacious classrooms and the best lighting facilities. In July of that year, it was announced that Dr. William Henry Yarbrough had been selected as principal. Dr. Yarbrough, at the time of his election by the City Board of Education, had been the superintendent of Peabody Demonstration School. In September, West began with a total enrollment of 1,025 students, with grades from seventh to twelfth. The building was formally dedicated in November, 1937, at an impressive ceremony attended by many of the city's most prominent educational and civic leaders.

There was some discussion on the name of our school. It was suggested that the high school in West End be named Hilary E. Howse after the Mayor, Hilary E. Howse. The mayor declined the honor of naming the school for himself. His refusal was based on the policy of the Federal Government through its Public Works Administration that no building or structure, in the erection of which the Public Works Administration has cooperated, is to be named for any living persons. It was therefore decided that the official name was to be West End High School. Soon afterwards the mayor passed away and it was suggested that the school's name be changed to memorialize the late Mayor Hilary E. Howse. In January, 1938, the P.T.A. protested. The battle still raging in March two representatives of West spoke to the members of the Board of Education. Milton Shaver, President of the senior class, and Walter Bysinger, a student, were selected by the student body as spokesmen and bearers of a petition with 450 signatures asking that the name be changed again to West End High School. The graduates even threatened to buy their own special diplomas just to show they were graduates of West.

The name "West High Blue Jays," given the school by a local paper, was at first unpopular with the students. An editorial written in 1937, by a student, said, "Are we going to stand up without a fight and let a bunch of newspapermen name us Blue Jays? If that ain't a sick name, I've never heard one yet. They aren't going to call us a bunch of "birdies" without a fight." That "dirty name pinned on us by the newspaper" has remained and become a part of West High.

That first year was the beginning of the spirit and life of West. The West End Men's Club was organized in order to give the active support of the fathers to extracurricular activities, especially athletics. Early in the first semester the need for a representative school publication was met with the appearance of the West Wind, a newspaper dedicated to covering the activities of the school. The R.O.T.C. began at West the very first day of school.

The first day of school also began West's student government. It was rather limited, but the students have always had their class officers as well as their homeroom officers. The first real step toward an active participation in school government was taken in December of the first year. A group of the seniors went to Dr. Yarbrough and stated their desire to relieve the teachers of their responsibility for the conduct of the students outside of classrooms. They began with sixty-five members whose jobs were to supervise the conduct in the halls, in the auditorium, in the cafeteria, and on the grounds. Then the student council was organized with John Gray Palmer as the first president. In March the first safety patrol was formed to check the "hazardous traffic conditions." Finally in April the senior class voted to have an alumni association.

The first year was a time that students who lived near by could go home for lunch, but this privilege was lifted when too many of West's sons and daughters left for the noon meal and forgot to return to enjoy the latter part of the school day.

This is also the year of the legend of Oscar Pickle, a nobody who was a somebody. When West first opened, Oscar registered in practically every class. Days passed and Oscar never showed up. During auditorium programs fantastic notes were handed to the presiding officer and invariably they were signed, Oscar Pickle. From then on, every misdeed was blamed on Oscar. Oscar Pickle did not graduate and, instead became West's first drop-out.

The first year meant the first graduates and the graduates closed the year with the Blue Jay spirit. Tuesday evening, June 7, 1938, the first West Superlatives were shown to the student body in a futuristic scene, 1960. Then Graduation Night came on Wednesday when 122 seniors received diplomas. West was well on her way.

In February of the second year there was the first election of student body officers. The two weeks of campaigning were rushed with an abundance of Blue Jay spirit. In fact, there was so much spirit that the newspapers got hold of it and brought the campaign out of the school and into Nashville. Raging like national politics, there was soap box oratory speaking in behalf of the two full tickets in the race. When the speeches and cheers and chants were over, Walter Ferguson was elected president; Randolph Caldwell, vice-president; Mai Mai Morrison, secretary; and J. N. Covington, head marshal.

By the beginning of the second year, the machinery of government was running more smoothly. The student council was active in its work of establishing better school spirit, good conduct, and better understanding between teacher and pupil. A new method of selecting the members of the student council was introduced. One student was nominated from each homeroom. These nominees then had to be approved by Dr. Yarbrough for scholastic and other necessary requirements.

It must not be forgotten that this was the year two honorary clubs were instituted: The National Honor Society, for students with high academic achievement, and the Quill and Scroll, national journalistic organization.

During the third year, the national Beta Club was instituted to reward students active in all branches of school life. The football team achieved the honor of being co-champions of the city. In May, Henryetta Gage was elected the first Miss West High. On inspection by federal authorities, the R.O.T.C. of West was awarded the highest possible rating. West was advancing.

In 1940, West became the Nashville scholastic tournament team champion and then state champion in tennis. At the beginning of the 1940-1941 semester, West inaugurated the Diversified Occupations Program, enabling students to obtain specified training in addition to required academic work. In May, at a high school press conference at Vanderbilt, the West Wind was awarded the Vanderbilt Hustler Cup for the best paper in the city. That same year the West Wind was named the third best high school newspaper in the state. The R.O.T.C. again received honor rating after federal inspection.

At the beginning of the 1941-1942 school year, sophomore biology students at West visited alleys in their neighborhoods to observe and report on sanitary conditions and to make recommendations for correcting the irregularities they found. Their frankly critical comments helped the community greatly with sanitation problems.

During World War II, the unity of the student body was demonstrated as all hearts and thoughts turned toward the battlefields of Europe. Students generated all their energy toward collecting paper and scrap metal. Their goal was a $450,000 bomber to bear the inscription, "The Spirit of West High."

In 1943, Coach Jim Farrell's football team boasted a 7-3 record. The team of 1945 ranked fifth in the state, and in 1951, West was invited to play in the annual Clinic Bowl Game, but lost to East. Our football field, Alumni Memorial Stadium, was completed in 1941 by the W.P.A. (Works Progress Administration).

The basketball team of 1944 was the first to achieve the state crown. This team was coached by Emmitt Strictland, who was awarded "Coach of the Year" honor at this time. Strictland's 1946 and 1948 teams also brought state trophies back from the tournaments.

The basketball team of 1954 enabled West to become the first school to win the TSSAA championship four times. The Jays closed out the regular season with a six-game winning streak, coasting easily to the top position in the eighteenth district.

The Jays began their long journey toward the state championship by defeating the Cohn Tigers in their first game of the Eighteenth District Tournament and Ryan in the semifinals. Backed by a tremendous cheering section, yelling "All the Way for Doc," the Blue Jays edged M.B.A. in a suddendeath overtime to become the Eighteenth District Champions. The Jays entered the finals of the Region 5 tournament by defeating slightly favored Donelson in another sudden-death overtime and by edging out McEwen. West won the Region 5 tournament by romping the heavily-favored Woodlawn Bulldogs.

In the State Tournament at Vanderbilt Gym, the mighty Jays, still backed by the cheer, "All the way for Doc," gained victory after victory in many close games. The West Blue Jays, who were victorious in an overtime in the semi-finals against Memphis Treadwell, went "All the Way for Doc" by coming from behind in the second half to defeat Lafollette in the last minute of play and gain the title of State Champs. That last night during the tournament has become a legend. Dr. Yarbrough had been advised by his doctor not to attend the game. West had been behind most of the evening. In the last minutes Dr. Yarbrough came, and amidst the tears and joyous yells, the team pulled out to victory.

Since 1954, the tremendous task of leading the students has been in the capable hands of John Anderson Oliver.

At the end of the 1961 school year, plans were formulated to make West a senior high school only.

Then one hot summer night in 1966 it was decided that West would become a junior high school only.

The life of West has been full and rewarding. West has paraded through time with high honors and all have been well earned. Only time can retell the stories of valor and glory; the sadness of almost making it and the sorrow of losing. For life must go on. West is not ending. She has only finished a beautiful phase. A new life is before her.

We can be proud of finishing that phase with honor. Our triumphs may have been few, but our honesty and sportsmanship gives us quiet honor, an honor to cherish. We had our life, our hopes and joys. Oscar Pickle came back with laughter and tears. The question of the hate rock will be a lasting secret that every senior will cherish. Perhaps we have learned the solution to the population explosion. Our class reunion will tell. Our battle for the Peabody Room for our prom will forever endear us to Mrs. Bjork. And we will forever be thankful for the senior lounge, even if it didn't last very long. The tears from our trusting teachers when our academic achievement fell, with be a lesson no Blue Jay will ever forget. We did not fail; not with their hope and pride helping us along; not with the bell tolling 31 times in our ears. We will not forget.

A new life is before us.

Thirty years filled with joys, sorrows, victories and defeats have walked these hallowed halls and we have all been a part of them. We hold within our grasp a tradition that will never die; a respect for the old and a longing for the new. As the last graduating class of West End High School, we will always cherish the good times and school spirit which has made West a living monument to us all.

HONORS

Each year, students at West chose a senior girl upon whom to bestow the coveted title "Miss West High." This year they chose Marilyn Rogers. Marilyn has a long record of dedicated service to her fellow students and to the school. She is secretary of the student body, captain of the cheerleaders, a member of Civinettes, Homecoming Queen and, understandably, voted "Best All-Round."

KAREN CLOUD

West has a unique organization called the Blue Feather. This organization recognizes students whose service to West End High School has been above and beyond the call of duty. Although this service may be either mental or physical in nature, it is always of direct or indirect benefit to West.

The Blue Feather serves to stimulate participation in the type of school activities recognized as rendering service to the school. Membership in the Blue Feather Organization is the highest honor a West student is able to receive.

We salute the honorees of the Blue Feather.

Homecoming

"A Pageant of Years"

"A Pageant of Years", West's final homecoming, was an electrifying combination of sentiment, solemnity, and spirit. At 7:30, Friday evening, Dec. 15, the Yarborough gym was filled with familiar, smiling faces of students, alumni and parents. Gary Stump initiated the ceremonies by welcoming alumni and guests. At this time, the lights were turned off except for one spotlight and the homecoming queen and attendants were presented. The cheerleaders were presented corsages by the athletic department.

The pep band of 1967 played at the game and lent a lot of spirit to the crowd. The game, against MBA, was a fine effort by the Jays as we lost by only one point in a very close game. After the game, the Crystals Combo entertained at the traditional Homecoming dance in the cafeteria. This was a thrilling evening for the queen and court, the team and cheerleaders, and all the students and alumni who attended.

PROM

On May 4, the Senior Prom was held in the Peabody Room on the Peabody campus. This is the first time that the prom was held off school grounds. Naturally this was due to our unique class situation. With the absence of a junior class to finance the prom, the P.T.A. and the Men's Club volunteered to be the sponsors. In spite of the many problems in arranging for the prom, it was a wonderful night and a big success.

JULIA EZELL
Betty Crocker Award

The Home Economics Department gave three awards this year to three outstanding students.

The Crisco Award goes each year to the girl voted as an outstanding Home Economics student. Congratulations to Martha Robertson on this sought after award.

A sterling silver place setting in the "Joan of Arc" pattern was the lovely award presented to Margaret Murray. This is awarded by popular vote.

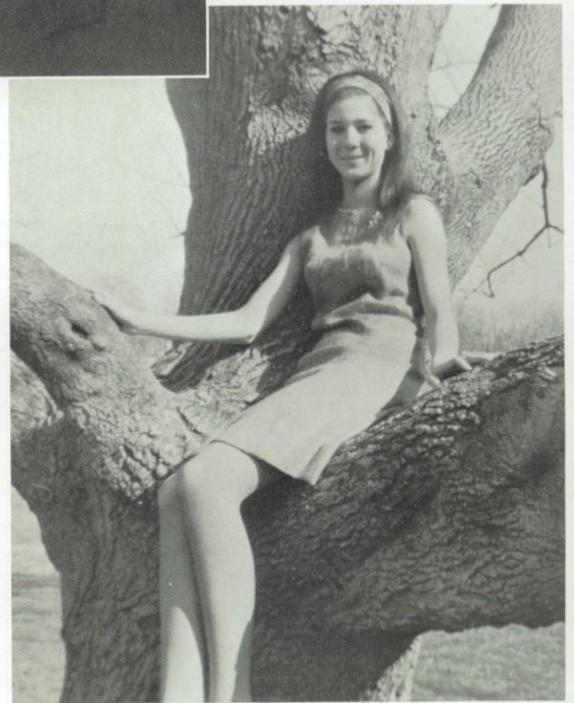

The Betty Crocker Award is given to the highest scoring recipient among a group of home economics students taking the Betty Crocker test. This year's highest scorer was Julia Ezell.

The West Wind is a reflection of activities and attitudes of the student body and faculty. True to our motto, "We agree not to think alike, but to walk together." In other words, the entire spectrum of school opinion, from violent criticism to greatest praise finds its way into our pages.

This year we had a small staff but we were able to produce fine papers all of which sold well. Through the months of work and worry we learned the importance of quality even at the expense of quantity.

Though the road was rocky we traveled on doing the utmost to make the reputation West shine through the West Wind.

CHOIR

Judith Beasley was selected for All-State Chorus.

The chorus is composed of students in grades seven through nine and twelve. They presented a musical "Our America Heritage in Music" to the Civitan Club and P.T.A., as a special assembly program, and for a meeting of the T.E.A. It was also taped for broadcasting on "School Days" on W.K.D.A. Another special was the Christmas program "Peace on Earth. Good Will Toward Men." They participated in the Solo and Ensemble Junior and Senior High Festival and in the Metro Junior High Festival. They presented a concert in the Spring.

As a result of the program presented last year, "The Sound of the Bell," West End High School and Mrs. Brandon received awards from the Freedoms Foundation.

The Key Club, a service organization, develops good citzenship, initiative, and leadership by serving the school and community. Sponsored by the Downtown Kiwanis Club, the members collected for Big Brothers, the Heart Fund, and Multiple Sclerosis. At Christmas time they delivered baskets filled with food to needy families and sponsored the Toys for Tots drive. They also provided the Christmas tree and delivered the inter-school cards. Other important activities of the Club were raising the flag before the basketball games and sponsoring the Key Club vs. Junior high basketball game.

The Civinettes Club is an invitational service organization composed of senior high girls. The purpose of the club is to serve the school and community. The members possess the qualities of responsibility and character.

During Thanksgiving, the girls went to Buva Orphanage Home and served refreshments and played games. On Christmas Eve the Civinettes, along with the Key Club, caroled for the Fannie Battle Day Home. On Valentine's Day the members went to Buva Orphanage Home and distributed candy and Valentine cards. For the Easter project, the club chose to go back to Buva for an Easter egg hunt. The last event of the year was a picnic at one of the local parks attended by both the Civinettes and the Key Club.

JAYS SHOW DEDICATION

"I don't believe I've ever had a bunch that wanted to win more."

Such was Joe Shapiro's comment on his last West basketball team, one of the most desiring and dedicated groups of boys to ever represent West End High School.

Perhaps that dedication is reflected by the number of close games this year, indicating the famous Blue Jay pride. The Jays lost four games by one point, one by three points, and one by six points. But they also won some close ones, including a triple-overtime tournament contest.

One of the features of this year's squad was its tremendous scoring balance. This created a great problem for West's opponents. They were faced with the task of shutting off five men instead one or two. Each member of the starting five, comprised of Mike Davidson, Bill Malone, Dave Walton, John Sisk, and Tommy Jones, showed the ability to take up the slack for any other teammate on any given night.

Tough always, West is toughest in tournament action, as was proved again this year. The Blue Jays, who were not even considered darkhorses, whipped Cohn 51-49 in triple-overtime in the opening round, on a shot, in the last few seconds, by Tommy Jones. It was then expected of them to play dead against North's seasonal runners-up. But the Jays methodically and patiently pierced the North zone defense, and were still in the game with five minutes remaining before giving way 59-38. Splitting the two tournament games gave West eight wins and thirteen losses for the year. The number of wins is equal to the performance of the previous year's club, a team that had considerably more talent.

1968 ended many things at West. One was a long and historic basketball heritage. There is no incentive to being last, but that made little difference to this year's squad. They have been and will be champs forever. Congratulations!

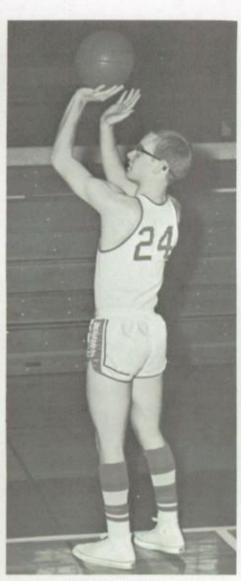

Tommy Jones

In eighteen years of impeccable service to West End High School, Joe Shapiro has won 360 games and lost 156. That's a percentage of .697—not bad at all. The photographs on this page tell the story of that 360th and final win. It came against Cohn in the 18th District tournament.

Actually, Cohn provided Shapiro with his last two wins—the other coming five nights earlier on the last day of the regular season. But this was the tournament, where tough teams are toughest.

As could be expected, the game was tight all the way. At halftime (upper right), Shapiro appears pensive as he considers his surroundings. Perhaps a hundred nights just like this one were flashing across his mind as he realized he might be nearing the end.

But, five periods (three overtimes) later, he is all smiles (right) as a result of Tom Jones' fifteen footer that swished through the two seconds remaining (below).

CHEERLEADERS ARE DEVOTED

The West High cheerleaders provided this year's meager but highly enthusiastic crowds with leadership in school spirit and good sportsmanship. Consisting of eight girls chosen by the student body last spring, the cheerleaders devoted many months to the perfecting of their skills. As there was no football team, the cheered only at the basketball games. They exhibited their imaginativeness and originality by presenting several clever skits during the course of the season.

Cheerleading is an experience in giving—not only of time, but of self as well. It was evident this year that these girls gave of themselves completely and inexhaustibly.

JUNIOR JAYS COP CHAMPIONSHIP 5-0

The West Jr. Jays lead by Captains Jack Davidson and Kim Skinner routed five teams straight to become the Jr. High Football Champions. The Jays were small in size but giants in spirit and determination. Racking a total of 120 points and gaining better than 1,000 yards rushing, the Jays were lead by offensive star, Pete Page, who scored nine touchdowns. This, coupled with better than 75% pass completion by quarterback Jack Davidson, made the Jr. Jays a powerful offensive machine.

The outstanding Jays were invincible on defense, holding their opponents scoreless and allowing only five first downs all season. In fact, no opponent crossed the Jay 30 yard line. The brilliant campaign began with a 13-0 victory over Howard and ended with a 16-0 defeat over second place Waverly Belmont. Block, Tackle and Jay Awards were given each week to the most outstanding players. Recipients of these awards included Jack Davidson, Pete Page, Tommy Walker, Lee Maxey, John Davis, Kim Skinner, Jim Weldon, and Bob Bogen.

Congratulations to this year's champs.

JUNIOR JAYS FLY HIGH

Although Coach Glen Falls' bid for a second consecutive championship failed, the Junior Jays enjoyed a most successful year. Compiling a 12-4 record, they came in second to Bailey during the regular season, and finished fourth in the tournament.

Led by Jack Davidson, their high scoring center, and guard Kim Skinner, the quarterback of the club, the Jays exhibited a well-drilled offense in addition to a stifling zone defense. Sparked by Davidson, on all-tournament selection, they advanced to the semifinal game of the tournament before bowing to North, and then to Bailey in the consolation match. In addition to capturing fourth place, West also took the sportsmanship trophy.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

The student body officers are the voice of the students in school government. The president presides over the student council meetings and introduces all auditorium programs. The vice-president must be capable of taking over for the president at any time. The secretary keeps the minutes of the student council meetings and is responsible for keeping the bulletin board up to date. The treasurer keeps track of the student council's money and is in charge of a daily devotional to be given over the loudspeaker. All of these officers are in charge of the announcements given daily.

SEPTEMBER—First Day of School

The year started off with the question: What results will the wide gap between classes bring?

Fair Day

Hope everyone rode the "Rotor", it was a real experience!

OCTOBER-A.C.T.

Kinda tough, right seniors?

Mock U.N. Assembly

A learning experience for our eight students who attended.

NOVEMBER—One Act Play Contest

Our entry was "A Cup of Tea."

Student vs. Faculty Basketball Game

Faculty seemed to really be on their toes, cheering and shooting. A combo was held afterward to welcome the Junior High to West.

Thanksgiving Holidays

Thank goodness!

DECEMBER—Christmas Projects

The Key Club did a great job collecting food baskets and toys, and delivering the students' Christmas cards.

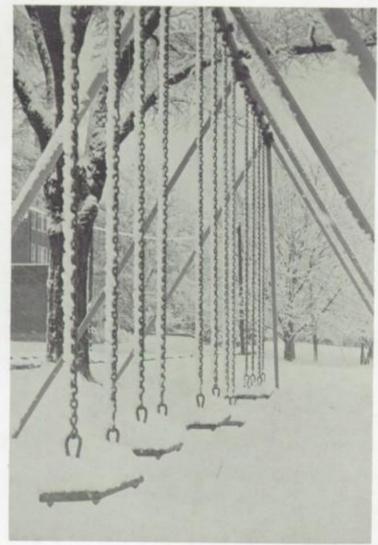

Christmas Parties

The seniors had a blast at their combo. Things got pretty smoky there for awhile! Each Junior High homeroom had its own Christmas party.

Seniors Ordered Caps and Gowns
Graduation is not so far away!

Homecoming

A tearful, but beautiful and long-to-be-remembered night.

Christmas Holidays

The holiday was considerably lengthened by heavy snowfalls.

JANUARY—Exams

A tense time of much cramming.

NEDT

The ninth graders have started on the long "test" road.

FEBRUARY-Men's Club Spaghetti Supper!!

Senior Lounge Opens

A place to get away from it all.

Auditorium Progrems

We had many excellent programs this year. To name a few: Good News;

Our Atomic World sponsored by Oak Ridge; Goodyear Science Program; and an excellent speaker, Mr. Bill Bass.

Last Senior High Pep Rally

The most touching of all the pep rallies. We learned that the West spirit will never die!

MARCH—Three-Act Play— The Curious Savage

Five weeks of hard work paid off, the cast and director were honored by a standing ovation.

Junior High Forensic Meet

West Junior took top honors. All contestants placed!

APRIL—Easter Holidays

Quite a few students came back tanned.

MAY-Senior Prom

A beautiful and memorable evening for West's last senior class.

Men's Club Spring Carnival

Successful as usual.

Honors Day

Honors were awarded to students for many and varied achievements in a special auditorium program.

Blue Feather Day

Hardworking seniors were given West's highest honor.

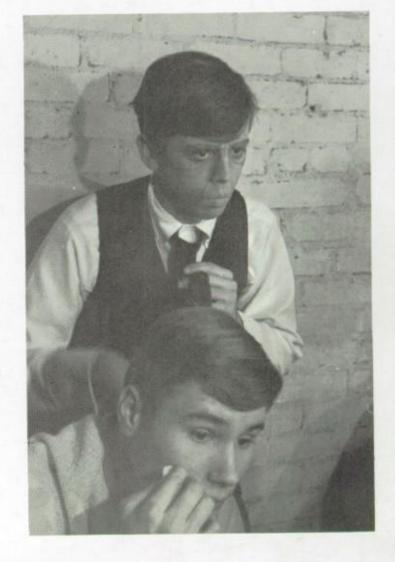

Senior Class Day

Final Exams

We finally made it through. Summer fun here we come!

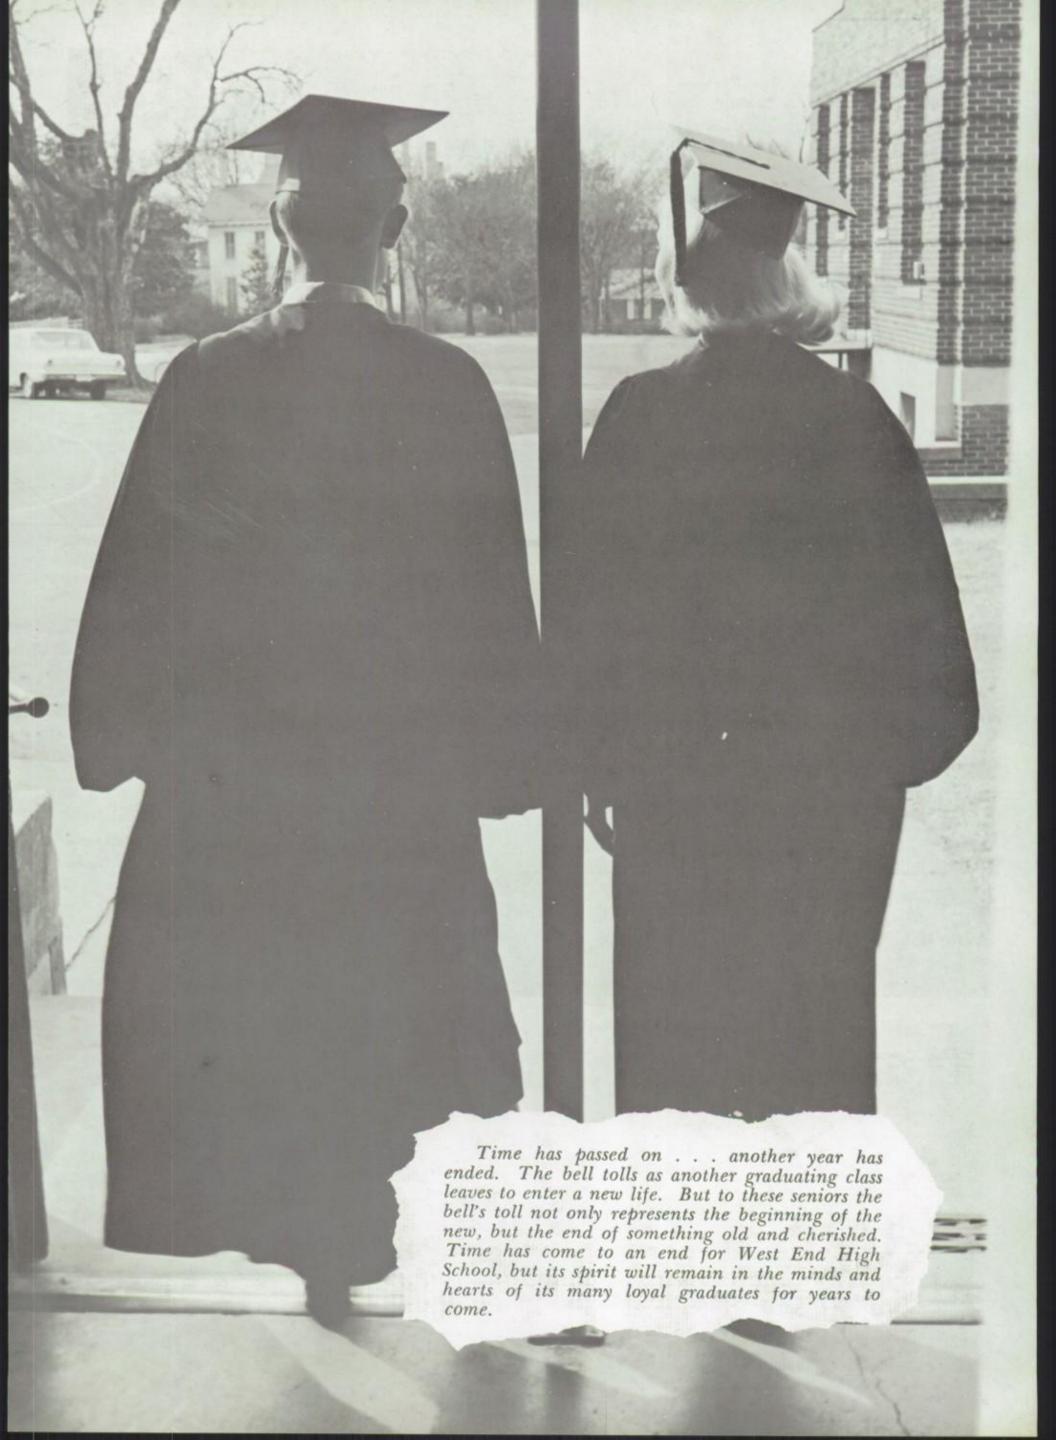

JUNE—Graduation

A day of reminiscing, of tears, of jubilation and fears. As for the gap between classes, it wasn't so wide after all.
